

AlzSpec Privacy Policy

Alzheimer's Spectrum Foundation will not obtain personally identifying information about you when you visit our site, unless you choose to provide such information to us, nor will such information be sold or otherwise transferred to unaffiliated third parties without the approval of the user at the time of collection.

Alzheimer's Spectrum Foundation does not collect personally identifiable information about individuals who visit our site except when the information is specifically provided on a voluntary basis.

Personally identifiable information on individual users will not be sold or otherwise transferred to unaffiliated third parties without the approval of the user at the time of collection. The user will have the opportunity to indicate whether he or she would like to "opt out" of receiving promotional and/or marketing information about other products, services and offerings from Alzheimer's Spectrum Foundation and/or any third parties. Further, notwithstanding any "opt out" of promotional information by the user, Alzheimer's Spectrum Foundation reserves the right to contact a subscriber regarding account status, changes to the subscriber agreement and other matters relevant to the underlying service and/or the information collected.

Alzheimer's Spectrum Foundation shall perform statistical analyses of user behavior and characteristics in order to measure interest in and use of our site. Alzheimer's Spectrum Foundation shall also inform advertisers of such information as well as the number of users that have been exposed to or clicked on their advertising banners. Aggregated data from these analyses may be provided to third parties. Alzheimer's Spectrum Foundation may sometimes permit third parties to offer subscription and/or registration-based services through our site.

Alzheimer's Spectrum Foundation is not responsible for any actions or policies of such third parties if a user decides to subscribe or register on those sites and users should check the applicable privacy policy when providing personally identifiable information to third parties.

Users should be aware that when they voluntarily disclose personally identifiable information (e.g., user name, e-mail address) on any bulletin boards or chat areas on our site, that information and any substantive information disclosed in the communication can be collected and used by third parties. This could result in unsolicited messages from others who post on our site and is beyond the control of Alzheimer's Spectrum Foundation.

Users may always "opt out" of further promotional contacts at any time. Also, upon request, Alzheimer's Spectrum Foundation will take reasonable efforts to delete a user's personal information from its database. It may be impossible to delete a user's entry without some residual information because of backups and records of deletions.

The foregoing policies are effective as of 11/1/2018.

Alzheimer's Spectrum Foundation reserves the right to change this policy at any time and will notify users of the existence of a new privacy statement. This statement and the policies outlined here are not intended to and do not create any contractual or other legal rights in or on behalf of any party.
